

We are retired and travel many months during the year in our 5th wheel trailer. If not for our XM radio, we would not be able to keep up with the weather and news. There are many places in our travel that local stations are not available. Please leave the satelllite radio stations alone. We pay for this service and it should not be limited. thanks Jim Martin